Student Union Board Presents ISU's 10th Annual Project Runway
Featuring Kate Pankoke

AMES, IA – Iowa State University's 10th annual Project Runway will be Friday, September 26, at 9pm, in the Great Hall of the Memorial Union. Admission is free and open to the public.

On Sunday, September 21, up to twenty student teams will participate in the Design Day where they will create garments to be later judged and displayed at Project Runway.

Kate Pankoke, from Project Runway Seasons 11 and 12, will act as guest host and judge. A local fashion expert will also help judge the competition. Participating teams will model their own designs at the event and will be judged on creativity, craftsmanship, and crowd appeal.

To register for the competition, complete a registration form online at sub.iastate.edu by Wednesday, September 17 at 5 pm. Teams may have up to six people and registration is open to the first 20 groups.

Before revealing the winning team, Pankoke will speak about her experience on Project Runway and her career as a designer. Pankoke was featured on Project Runway Season 11 and was voted back by fans for Project Runway Season 12.

TREND Magazine, an ISU student-run publication, will do a photo-shoot and article on the winning team's design to be published later this year.

Student Union Board (SUB), a student-run programming board that organizes cultural, recreational, educational, social, and entertainment activities and events throughout the academic year.
