

DUAL ARTIST CAREERS

Monday, June 19th, 2017

7:00pm-8:00pm

LeBaron Auditorium 1210

Heather Ujiie

Assistant Professor
Moore College of Art and Design

Heather is a digital textile artist who creates “large-scale allegorical narratives that utilize analog and digital craft and technology.” Her textile creations incorporate hand-painting, drawing, stitching, and digital printing. Heather’s work has been displayed at the Samuel S. Fleisher Art Museum’s Wind Challenge Award Exhibition, the Racine Museum, and a number of other museums.

Hitoshi Ujiie

Program Director
Surface Imaging Program
Philadelphia University
School of Design and Engineering

Hitoshi is an inkjet surface imaging and painting technologist, with more than 20 years of high-end surface imaging and manufacturing experience. He is known in the field of interior surface imaging for his “combination of traditional aesthetics with computer aided design expertise.” In 2015, Hitoshi, as Program Director, launched the Master of Science in Surface Imaging at Philadelphia University.

Contact us at TextileandForm@iastate.edu for information:

Sponsored in part by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts and

The Donna R. Danielson Professorship in Textiles & Clothing