Blue ribbon for doll dress designer

Yvonne Barrett won a first-place ribbon for her oriental doll at the National Convention of the United Federation of Doll Clubs.

Yvonne Barrett created this doll dress from a man's silk tie.

Longtime Ankeny resident Yvonne Barrett recently attended the National Convention of the United Federation of Doll Clubs held in Kansas City. She taught a workshop on creating dresses for a china head doll from silk ties. She also entered the doll competition and won a first-place ribbon for oriental doll and six fourth-place ribbons on other dolls. Barrett is a member of the Iowa Kate Shelley Doll Club and the Sunbonnet Doll Club.
